Hermia cannot bear to marry Demetrius so she and Lysander run away to the woods to make a plan.

While they are in the woods, they meet Helena who is sad because she actually loved Demetrius. Hermia wishes that Demetrius loved Helena so that they could get married and leave her and Lysander to be free together.

Meanwhile, the fairies who also live in the woods are having their own problems...

Queen Titania has made Oberon (King of the Fairies) jealous and angry as she is taking care of a little boy and Oberon wants the boy to be his servant. Titania won't let Oberon have the boy as a slave, so Oberon decides to trick Titania. He gets his helper, Puck, to find the magic flower that has special powers to make people fall in love with the first thing they see. He wants to use it on Titania.

On the same night in another part of the woods...

a group of workers are rehearsing a play for Duke Theseus' wedding day. It all gets very silly! Bottom is the funniest of them all and wants to play all the parts. Pucks sees him and thinks it would be funny to use the flower to make Queen Titania fall in love with Bottom!

The next thing we know is that Puck has found Titania sleeping and drops the flower juice on her. Just before he did this, he also thought it would be really funny to turn Bottom's head into a donkey's head!

Just as planned, when Titania awoke, the first things she sees is Bottom and falls in love with him straight away.

Puck also finds sleeping Hermia and Lysander on the way back to King Oberon. Puck gives the flower juice to Lysander thinking that he needs it – but it's the wrong person! When Lysander awakes, he sees Helena and falls in love with her.
