

Plant Hunters

I can describe how people brought new plants to our country.

Match the facts on the left with the correct famous explorer and plant hunter on the right.

This plant hunter was involved in setting up the Royal Gardens at Kew.

This plant hunter introduced the Douglas fir, the lupin and the flowering currant.

This plant hunter was the first woman to sail around the world.

This plant hunter was kidnapped in South America while looking for orchids.

This plant hunter introduced the bougainvillea.

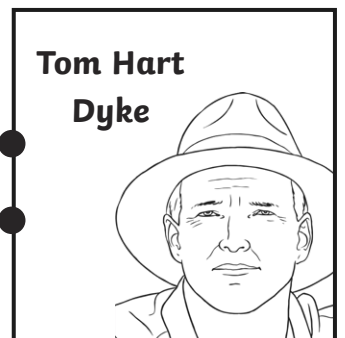

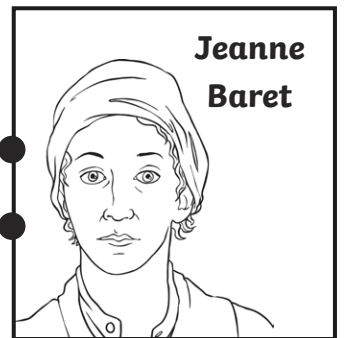

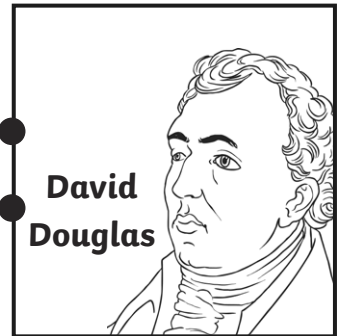

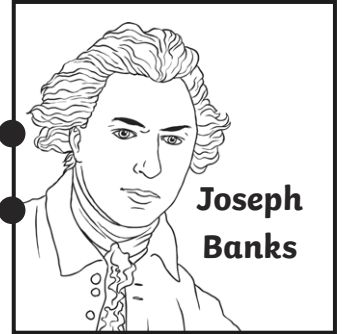

This plant hunter designed and created the World Garden, containing over 8000 species of plants.

This plant hunter introduced the eucalyptus and acacia trees.

This plant hunter died while climbing a mountain in Hawaii.

Plant Hunters

I can describe how people brought new plants to our country.

Match the facts on the left with the correct famous explorer and plant hunter. Add another fact about each person in the blank boxes on the right.

This plant hunter was involved in setting up the Royal Gardens at Kew.

This plant hunter introduced the Douglas fir, the lupin and the flowering currant.

This plant hunter was the first woman to sail around the world.

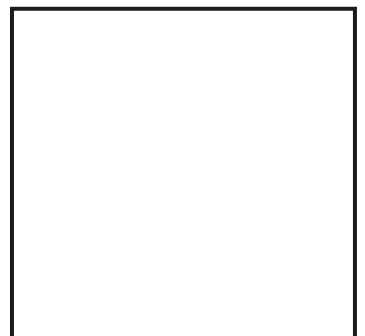

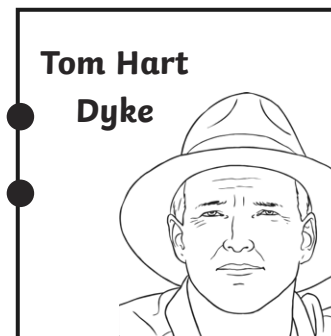

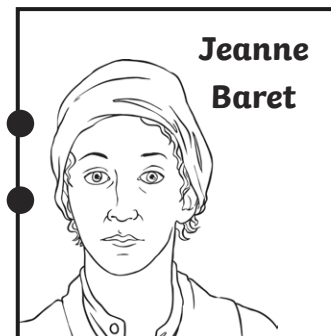

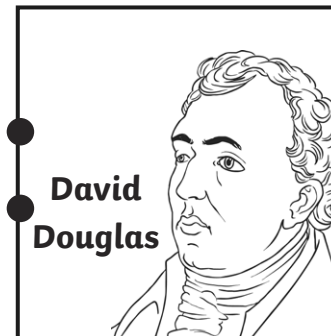

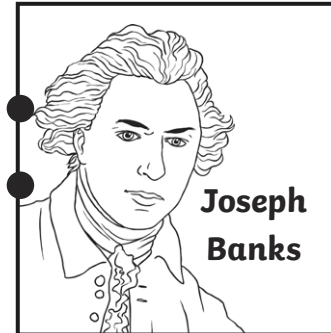

This plant hunter was kidnapped in South America while looking for orchids.

This plant hunter introduced the bougainvillea.

This plant hunter designed and created the World Garden, containing over 8000 species of plants.

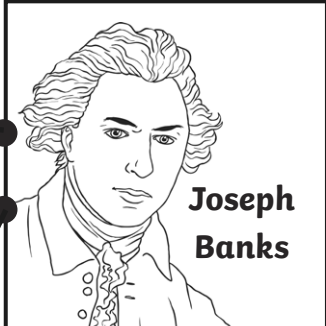

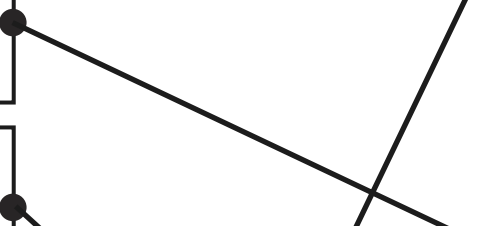

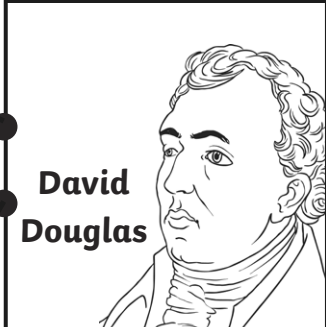

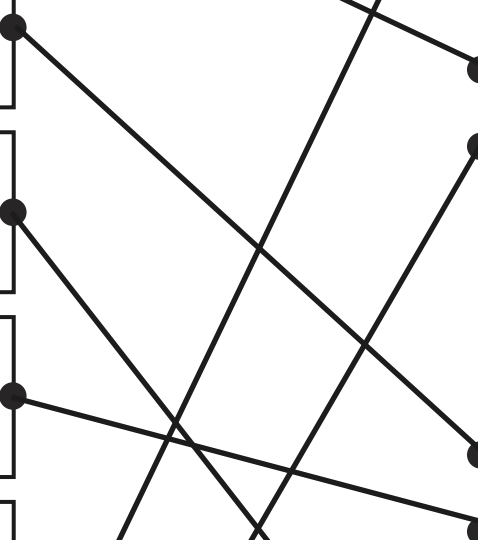

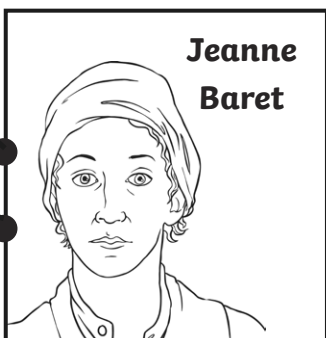

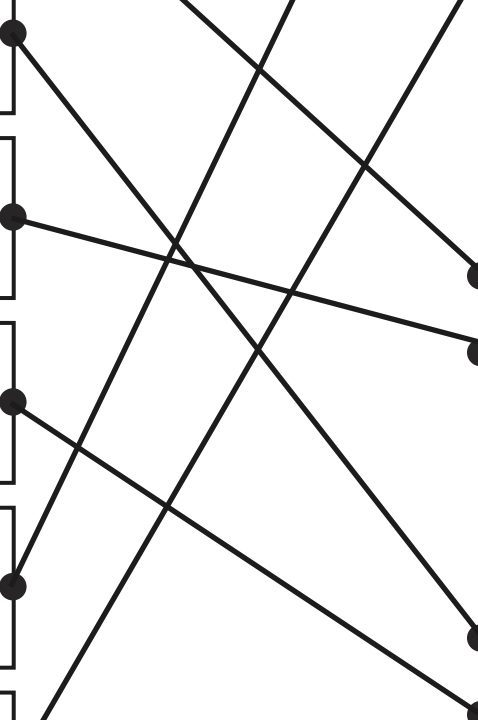

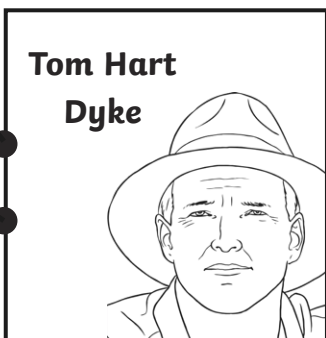

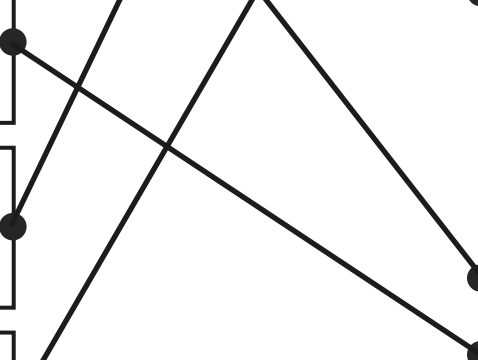

This plant hunter introduced the eucalyptus and acacia trees.

This plant hunter died while climbing a mountain in Hawaii.

Plant Hunters Answers

Match the facts on the left with the correct famous explorer and plant hunter on the right.

 This plant hunter was involved in setting up the Royal Gardens at Kew.		 Joseph Banks
 This plant hunter introduced the Douglas fir, the lupin and the flowering currant.		 David Douglas
 This plant hunter was the first woman to sail around the world.		 Jeanne Baret
 This plant hunter was kidnapped in South America while looking for orchids.		 Tom Hart Dyke
 This plant hunter introduced the bougainvillea.
 This plant hunter designed and created the World Garden, containing over 8000 species of plants.
 This plant hunter introduced the eucalyptus and acacia trees.
 This plant hunter died while climbing a mountain in Hawaii.		